

Notes/Highlights from the 2018 Annual Meeting

The 16th Annual Meeting of AMSR Inc. was called to order by Chairman Gerald McArthur at 9 o'clock at Marcus Pointe Baptist Church. Call to order was followed by Pledge of Allegiance and singing by all of God Bless America.

An overview of the agenda was presented by Chairman McArthur

- Call to order and opening comments
- AMSR, Inc., Business Meeting
- Highlights of 2019 Health Care Changes (Humana and Barnes Insurance)
- Presentation, Primary Services provided by Council on Aging of West Florida, Inc., Josh Newby, Marketing Communications Director
- Remarks by Tom Staples, Prepaid Legal Plan and Sharon Oakes, Care Specialist with Assisted Living Locators
- Door Prizes
- Adjournment to meet with Insurance Representatives, Tom Staples and Sharon Oakes

Chairman McArthur reported on financial statement and indicated finances continue to be sound, and pointed to several donations including Ronald McDonald House, Cram the Van, Council on Aging.

During the discussion on Life Insurance benefits retirees were reminded those who retired before December 31, 2001 should have life benefits; however, the record keeping has been transferred to Prudential Life Insurance. Retirees should have received notice earlier this year (2018). Please note the number, 1-800 778 3827, and is also listed on the AMSR, Inc. web page.

Insurance Representatives Brandie Beauchamp (Humana) and Dennis Barnes (Barnes Insurance - Florida Blue) and reviewed changes for 2018 and encouraged retirees to call with any questions and/or concerns.

Josh Newby, Council on Aging of West Florida, spoke to the group and related several situations where his agency has been able to assist. Josh also reviewed the many services Council on Aging performs in the Escambia and Santa Rosa county area.

Following the drawing for Door Prizes, Chairman McArthur adjourned the meeting, and encouraged everyone to visit with the Insurance Representatives along with Tom Staples and Sharon Oakes.